

Miniprofile

Staff Sgt. Alvin L Bailey, United States Air Force; Alvin served as wounded evacuation personnel for ground troops during the Vietnam War in 1966 through 1968. Upon his return home he silently suffered with PTSD for many years before proper diagnoses in 1985. His treatment for PTSD continues today. Alvin says that in the beginning of his treatment, treatment and awareness was minimal at best. But most recently treatment has improved significantly through the VA hospital. He also says “I am now able to accept those horrible memories and move on with my life”.

Department of Veterans Affairs

